

R

Create five questions about the characters in your story. Answer your questions and provide the page number where the answer was found.

Write a letter to the author. Tell him/her what you liked about the book and at least three questions that you would like to ask.

E

Create five questions about the events in your story. Answer your questions and provide the page number where the answer was found.

Create a T-Chart in your notebook as you read. Label one side Questions and the other Answers. Record both as you read.

A

Create one of each type of question: who, what, where, when, and how for your story.

Before reading your story, write 3 questions you have by looking at the title, front cover, or reading the back. Look for the answers as you read.

D

Write three questions that you still have after reading the text.

Pretend you could meet one of the characters in real life. Make a list of 5 questions that you would ask the character.