

R

E

A

D

Choose what you think is the most important illustration of your story. Sketch or describe the picture. Then explain why you think it is important.

Explain how the illustrations in your story are connected to the story. How do they support or match the story?

Choose an event that does not have an illustration. Describe the perfect illustration for that event. Explain how the illustration you described connects to the text.

Choose an illustration from your story. Describe the illustration and explain what additional information it provides to the story.

Choose an event from your text. Retell the event and then sketch or describe an illustration that would best match the event.

Choose an illustration that you think does a good job describing a character. Describe the illustration and explain why you chose it.

Choose an illustration that you think does a good job describing the setting. Describe the illustration and explain why you chose it.

Choose an illustration from your story that creates a mood. Describe the illustration and explain how you think it creates a mood.